These schools are known as "Vivekananda Kendra Vidyalayas" (VKV), and have their presence in 15 out of 16 districts of the state. Many of these have residential hostel-facilities for boys and girls separately. Some of the schools are up to Higher Secondary level. VKVs have been recognised by the people of Arunachal Pradesh as one of the most reputed and sought-after educational institutions of the state, providing Quality-education to the masses.

VKVAPT invites application for the post of residential teachers in the VKVs of Arunachal Pradesh. Apart from perquisite educational qualifications, the organisation seeks in the candidates a zeal for social service and serving the motherland India in its north-eastern Himalayan corner.
